Created by Scenory

Ethan, fueled by a renewed sense of purpose, dives headfirst into the remaining principles.

Research becomes his weapon.
He seeks the perfect
opportunity to turn his dreams
into reality.

Networking is key.
He steps outside his
comfort zone,
seeking connections
and guidance.

*Your idea is interesting,
but it's not for me.*

Obstacles arise. Rejection stings, but Ethan refuses to be detered.

An elderly man with a white beard and a young man are sitting at a dark wooden desk in a library. The elderly man is on the left, wearing a dark suit and tie, looking towards the young man. The young man is on the right, wearing a dark blue hoodie and jeans, looking back at the elderly man. The background is filled with bookshelves containing many books. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image, containing text.

Seeking wisdom from those who have walked
the path before him.

Persistance is the key.
Never give up on your vision.

A spark ignites! A new perspective emerges from the depths of his dedication.

Persistence pays off.
Ethan presents his vision with newfound confidence.
